Surrounded by picturesque vineyards and towering green pines, Renault Winery Resort and Golf, South Jersey's most unique destination resort just minutes away from Atlantic City, combines the splendor of the Mediterranean and the scenic bounty of wine country to create a perfect setting for your wedding day.

Their 50 room Tuscany House Hotel boasts Old World European style and sophistication, while their historic Renault Winery offers a unique vineyard ambiance steeped in romance.

With a wide variety of banquet facilities that have their own distinctive atmosphere, Renault can accommodate 20 to 250 guests. For a reception, you can choose from four different dining rooms, and two elegant grand ballrooms resplendent in hand painted murals and the finest crystal chandeliers. There are also three unique indoor ceremony areas and an infinite number of beautiful, romantic locations throughout Renault's spacious grounds, including charming porches, courtyards and gazebos on a pond or overlooking the golf course, to choose from for an outdoor wedding.

If you would also like to hold your Rehearsal Dinner at Renault, you can choose from over a dozen different areas, including their two award-winning, voted "Most Romantic" restaurants; Joseph's at the Tuscany House Hotel and Renault Gourmet Restaurant.

Whether you choose to hold your wedding at the Tuscany House

Hotel or Renault Winery, their Wedding Consultants can promise you the perfect setting for a memorable wedding day that will fit your needs and fulfill your dreams.

Owned and operated by Joseph P. Milza and his family for over 30 years, Renault has assembled a top notch wedding and event planning staff that reflects the highest quality of personal service in a cordial atmosphere that has become a Renault trademark.

One of Mr. Milza's daughters, Cindy Gibson, is Director of Operations, responsible for overseeing the entire wedding planning at Renault.

"Our Wedding Professionals work together as a team, sharing our family's primary concern for excellence and individualized service," said Gibson. "Our staff is our biggest asset. We can rely on them to consistently provide the friendly personal attention and expertise that assures every bride and groom will have the wedding that they dreamed of. — they do it so smoothly and make everything look so simple!

They're experts in creating a climate of worry-free comfort so that the wedding party can actually relax and enjoy their special day!"

"Although most couples plan their wedding about 12 months ahead, we occasionally are asked about having a wedding with much less planning time. If the date is available, we'll book a wedding with just a few weeks notice! But that couple will still receive the same fine quality of personalized attention and the same comprehensive package that leaves the wedding party very little left to do — just choosing a photographer, transportation, entertainment and personal flowers. We also provide an extensive professional services list of excellent, reliable and talented professionals that we highly recommend, upon request."

To complement their unparalleled Wedding staff, Renault's Executive Chef, Joseph De Genarro, is the dynamic force behind maintaining their high quality of food service. Personally handling all aspects of menu development, food preparation and presentation for each wedding, De Gennaro's commitment to excellence is evident in every rehearsal dinner, cocktail reception or wedding reception. His experience in fine dining, paired with an uncanny ability to translate the food preferences of each wedding party into a sensational dining experience, is a sheer delight to behold and enjoy!

"Every wedding couple wants something different," said De Gennaro. "I want them to feel comfortable enough to let us know exactly what they have in mind so I can to give them exactly what they want. Whether it's a structured formal dinner, a Sushi Bar or Fondue, or a completely vegetarian meal, we're here to create an unforgettable dining experience on their special day."

Renault, a registered New Jersey Historic Site, now celebrating its 146th year as one of the oldest continually operating wineries in the country, is also a beautiful and fascinating destination, in and of itself.

"Couples often 'fall in love' with the winery", said Joseph Milza, the patriarch owner/operator of Renault Winery Resort & Golf. "They are so enamored with the history and charm of Renault that they choose a winery theme for their wedding that can include a Winery Tour, a special Wine Tasting in our intimate Wine Tasting Room and a visit to our famous Wine Cellar. Of course, we are delighted to accommodate the couple's desire to include the winery in their wedding plans by offering exclusive tours and tasting, as well as, arranging for the actual wedding ceremony to be held indoors, at different locations throughout the winery or outdoors, in our picturesque vineyards."

Although Renault has, deservedly, acquired a long held reputation for holding spectacular weddings on their premises, they are also known for affordable and flexible pricing, with many discount opportunities. Discounts are available on Fridays and Sundays from January through April (off season). Attractive special discounts on Hotel Packages are also available.
